

SUMMER READING

JUNIORS

You must read three books: the following two books and one of your own choosing and answer the questions below. Your three reports must be typed and handed in to your junior English teacher on the first day of school.

ANGELA'S ASHES by Frank McCourt

SLAUGHERHOUSE FIVE by Kurt Vonnegut

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IN COMPLETE PARAGRAPHS FOR ALL THREE BOOKS (no less than five sentences per paragraph)

- I. What role does setting play in this book?

- II. What is the author's message in this book? What is he/she trying to convey to the reader?

- III. What character from this book do you relate to most? Why?

- IV. Write a review of this book for a friend either recommending it or not recommending it. Explain in detail why.
