

Rice Scholarship Winners

Seniors Terrell Henderson, Anton Hanton, Timothy Crawford and Gustavo Maximo (pictured) each received $2,500 scholarship awards towards their college educations. The awards came from the Metro PCS Community Scholars Program, sponsored by Kyocera. These seniors were honored because of their intense volunteerism and community service while attaining academic excellence. Our seniors were presented their awards at the SNY Invitational basketball games on January 30th.

Terrell Henderson was the recipient of yet another prestigious award. The President's Volunteer Service Award was bestowed upon him for his positive involvement and influence in the community and the country.

Congratulations Rice Men for making a difference!!
