

Mission Statement

Rice High School, established in 1938 in Central Harlem by the Congregation of Christian Brothers is a Catholic, college preparatory school that exists to educate young men by developing spiritual, academic, and personal qualities that will allow them to make a difference in their families, communities, and society at large.